The First & Second Epistles to Timothy

❖ In 80, Timothy tried to halt a pagan procession of idols, ceremonies, and songs.

❖ In response to his preaching of the Gospel, the angry pagans beat him, dragged him through the streets, and stoned him to death.

❖ In the 4th century, his relics were transferred to the Church of the Holy Apostles in Constantinople. The Church also numbers Timothy among the 70 apostles sent out by Jesus Christ to preach the Gospel.

The Role of Men & Women

What are the roles/orders within the church?

- The Laity
- The Deacons
- The Presbyters (also priests or elders)
- The Bishop

Two orders are available to females

The orders of laity and deacons are available to females, but they are not to have authority over a man.

The Role of Deaconess in the Early Church

1. The assisting at the administration of the baptism of women. "It is required that those who go down into the water (of baptism) shall be anointed with the oil of anointing by a deaconess."
2. Instructing newly baptised women. "When she that is baptised comes up from the water, the deaconess shall receive her, and shall teach her and instruct her how the seal of baptism may be unbroken in chastity and holiness."
3. The taking of messages of the bishop to women, where he could not send the deacon.

The Role of Deaconess in the Early Church

4. Ministering to the sick and poor.
5. Ministering to the martyrs in prison.
6. Presiding over the women's entrance into the church; examining the commendatory letters of strangers and assigning them places.
7. Oversight of the widows and orphans.

The Role of Deaconess in the Early Church

After the sixth century the order began to decline, both in numbers and in prestige for several reasons

- The decline and breakup of the Roman Empire made it unsafe for women to live and work alone
- As the Church moved westward, men were less restricted in their ministry to women
- Baptism of adults became rare
- Fewer martyrs were imprisoned

The Role of Deaconess

There has been a resurgence of the order of Deaconess (also called consecrated sisters) in the Coptic Orthodox church.

We have many examples of them in Egypt and some in Australia.

They are consecrated mainly to serve other females.
