THE LITURGICAL CYCLE IN THE COPTIC CHURCH

The word "Liturgy" in classic Greek means a "Public service undertaken on behalf of people" . It comes from

1. Liow means "People"
2. Ergia means "work"

The word is used in the epistle of Hebrews ( Heb. 8:6 , 9:21 ) to mean " the service of the alter" or " the priestly service"

The Church used the word from the Apostolic age , to cover all types of worship that is organised by her , and offered by her members or in their names. But, lately the word "Liturgy" is attached to the service of "Eucharist" , although there are other Liturgies , as the Liturgy of Baptism , Liturgy of marriage, etc.

The Coptic Liturgy mainly consists of :

1. "The Liturgy of Time" or " the Divine Service"

It consists of the public ecclesiastic prayers , where the Church practices its liturgical life all the day , praising her Lord , honouring His servants and followers , and interceding for the salvation of the world. It is different than the Eucharist and Sacramental prayers. The aim of the Divine service is to devote all our time to the Lord , by singing psalms and hymns, enjoying recitation from the Holy Scripture,.....

In this service , the Church asks the whole world, visible and invisible , with all its creatures to praise the Creator. This service is considered the preparation for the sacramental life , as it leads to a concentrated mind and a zealous soul towards the fellowship with God.

2. The Eucharist

It may be subdivided into three services :

1. The Offertory
2. The Liturgy of Catechumens.
3. The Liturgy of the Faithful "Anaphora"

THE LITURGY OF TIME (THE DIVINE SERVICE)

There are four cycles of time :

Jesus Christ is the centre of all these cycles , because He is the aim of our praying , reciting and praising

1. THE DAILY CYCLE:

This cycle includes :

- 1) The Canonical hours; { see appendix 1}
  - ❖ The morning prayer (1st. hour - 6 AM) : to remember the Resurrection of the Lord from the dead.

- ❖ The 3rd. hour prayer ( 9 AM ) : to remember the sentence of death to our Lord , and the descend of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples on the day of Pentecost.
- ❖ The 6th.hour (12 noon ) : the remembrance of the crucifixion of our Lord , to save us from the penalty of our sins and to return us back to the kingdom of heaven.
- ❖ The 9th. Hour ( 3 PM ) at this hour Jesus Christ died on the cross and fulfilled all the requirements of Divine justice. His sacrifice is the fullness of our day.
- ❖ The sunset prayer ( 11th. Hour - 6PM) : the body of our Saviour was brought down from the cross . , and we have His promise that He will accept us if we returned back to Him even on the 11th. Hour.
- ❖ Before sleeping prayer ( 12th. Hour - ~9 PM) : the Lord's body was laid in the tomb, and we remember also our departure from this world .
