Having been honoured to convey this message, I assume this opportunity to express to your good self, all the reverent fathers, priests and monks in the Diocese and the Egyptian Coptic Orthodox Community in Sydney my sincere congratulations, Highly appreciating the role of the Dioceses of Sydney that has always been valued as a huge supporter for our beloved mother land Egypt, which made the Egyptians in Australia a true reflection of pride not only within the Australian community, but also a real role model for other Egyptian communities abroad.

Wishing your good self all the best, hoping God the almighty alleviates this Pandemic and grant us all the wellness and blessing on this Occasion. My heartfelt wishes to your grace with permanent Success.

Please accept my highest considerations
