

Give children the random pictures not in any order.

Explain that each image represents something from their lesson

Ask the children to put the images in an order that flows, explaining what each represents to tell the story.

Probe the children with questions at each picture to get more details.

FreeFoto.com

