The Temptation of Christ.

As children of God, the word of God is our sword against temptation from the devil. God has many ways of providing for His people, and therefore, at all times we need to depend upon Him. All Satan's promises are deceitful; and we should reject at once, every opportunity of sinful gain or advancement, as a price offered for our souls. We should seek riches, honours, and happiness in the worship and service of God only.

Our victorious Redeemer conquered, not for Himself only, but for us also. The devil ended all the temptation. Christ let him try all his force, and defeated him. And remember, if we resist the devil, he will flee from us.

Going Fishing!

Though the men had caught nothing, yet Christ told them to let down their nets again. We must not abruptly quit our callings because we have not the success in them we desire. We are likely to speed well, when we follow the guidance of Christ's word. The draught of fishes was by a miracle.

We must seek Him that He would not depart; for woe unto us if the Saviour depart from sinners! Rather let us entreat Him to come and dwell in our hearts by faith, that He may transform and cleanse us.

These fishermen forsook all, and followed Jesus. When riches increase, and we are tempted to set our hearts upon them, but let us forget them and set our hearts on God!
