

Do Your Job!

Christ was neither ashamed nor afraid to do good on the Sabbath. He healed the poor man, though He knew that His enemies would take advantage of this. Let us not be drawn either from our duty or from our usefulness by any opposition!

Monday (Read Luke 6:1-16)

(1) What was the first thing the Pharisees saw Jesus do on the Sabbath?

(2) What was the second thing the Pharisees saw Jesus do on the Sabbath?

(3) What was Jesus' response to them?

(10) What does Jesus say about the speck in your brothers eye?

(11) Which is better, a house on a rock or a house without foundation? Why?

Justice and sincerity.

If we are of a giving and a forgiving spirit, we shall ourselves reap the benefit. Though full and exact returns are made in another world, not in this world. Those who follow the multitude to do evil, follow in the broad way that leads to destruction. The tree is known by its fruits; may the word of Christ in our hearts, that we may be fruitful in every good word and work. What your mouth commonly speaks, generally agrees with what is in our hearts. People who think, speak, and act according to the words of Christ are safe in death and judgement, being kept by the power of Christ through faith unto salvation, and they shall never perish.

Friday (Read Luke 7:1-17)
